

Triangle Fire Memorial Association Awards Ceremony

Sunday March 25th at 2:00 PM

We Honor the 146 Victims of the Tragic Fire and the Annual Awardees.

2018 Honorees

Vincent C. Maltese, Chairman, is pleased to announce the names of the Distinguished Awardees who will be Honored at the 2018 Memorial & Awards Ceremony on Sunday, March 25th, 2018:

PAOLA CORSO – Poet, Fiction Writer & Essayist. Award-winning author of Once I Was Told the Air Was Not for Breathing, featuring poems about the Triangle Factory Fire.

PROF. EDVIGE GIUNTA – Educator at New Jersey City University. Award Winning Author on Italian American Studies and The Triangle Fire.

SONDRA E. McGill – Triangle Fire Memorial Association Curator. Bard College Degree -Art Historian. Triangle Fire Victim Family Descendant.

JOHN M. PERRICONE – Queens Community Leader. Vice Chairman TFMA, Active in Italian American, Precinct Community Council & Economic Development.

DR. ADRIENNE ANDI SOSIN – Educator, Author, “Remember the Triangle Fire Coalition” Activist.

DR. DANIEL LEVINSON WILK – Assoc Prof of American History at FIT. Prize Winning Educator & Author on Business History & History of Elevators.

The Triangle Memorial and Awards Ceremony will be held on the Anniversary of the Tragic Fire on Sunday, March 25th, 2018 at 2 PM at CNL Center at Christ the King High School.